Bob Wilson OBE Is 85

1) Bob Wilson was born, in Chesterfield, on the 30th October 1941
And became keen on playing football before much time had gone
To by everyone be given a big hip hip hurray
It's his special 85th birthday today

2) Bob, for Arsenal, was a great football goal-keeper for ages
Making all the different sports pages
Featuring as a youth and senior international for Scotland too
Whilst being cheered on by quite a few

3) Bob married Margaret "Megs" Miles in July 1964
To live a long life together never seen before
With John, Anna and Robert as 3 nice children with no debate
Until sadly Anna died of cancer in the year 1998

4) Bob as a coach helped lots of other goal-keepers out
At the same time as hosting 'Football Focus' well on BBC TV no doubt
With Des Lynam on 'Grandstand' covering many a UK football game
Updating the current scores time and time again

5) Bob also at ITV sports commentary often showed up
Giving presentation of UEFA Champions League, League Cup and FA Cup
He's been a great all-round sports star for you and me
Also in 2007, for charity work, deservedly awarded an OBE
