

Real Friends Without Debate

- 1) When you and me very first met
We did so with not a bit of regret
With-out at all telling a lie
Forever looked eye to eye
We're now going to be holding hands forever
Going different places never

- 2) Having had a very heart to heart talk
Across the bridge we went on a nice walk
We were now both looking at troubles as a thing of the past
Helping one another overcome them all at last
We're now going to be holding hands forever
Going different places never

- 3) This definitely was a truly wonderful day
With lots of romance and happiness on its way
Both of us could see loneliness as a thing of the past
Having finally found true love at last
We're now going to be holding hands forever
Going different places never

- 4) Walking under the blue sky and sunshine
We were getting along together really fine
Giving one another the biggest smile
That we'd each had for oh quite a while
We're now going to be holding hands forever
Going different places never

- 5) It now overall completely seems
That coming true are both our dreams
With neither of us needing too much debate
We concluded this special day being to one another a nice soul-mate
We're now going to be holding hands forever
Going different places never
