

Why I'm Always Delighted With Man United

- 1) As this season so far has to tell
Man U are doing extremely very well
Currently playing team-wise in top gear
They're in The Premiership at the top many points clear

- 2) With no surprise to me and you
Van Persie and Rooney have for Man U scored oh quite a few
Hernandez has done well goal-wise too
Often as a substitute has come to the club's deep rescue

- 3) Just as time has had to tell
In defence Man U haven't done as well
This season on the complete whole
They've let the opposition score plenty a goal

- 4) One thing this year Sir Alex and the fans have often had to find
Is Man U needing score-wise to come from a goal or two behind
Though with them never at all giving in Very often Man U have come back from behind to win

- 5) If Man U's team talent continues to buck up
I'm sure this season they'll win more than just one Cup
And conclusively them and the fans will have lots of celebration
With not a tiny bit of hesitation
