

125 Years Of Morrisons

- 1) Morrisons shop was first formed in June 1899
And founded by William Morrison it was to go fine
Starting as an egg and butter merchant yes
In Rawson Market, Bradford, England or so I guess
- 2) His son Ken Morrison then took over in the year 1952
And turned it into a big shop for me and you
Which has now been a supermarket for ages
With it's 125th Anniversary today making all the front pages
- 3) Morrisons sells a bit of everything you need
With lots of staff, store-wise and at the till, doing their deed
As the 5th largest supermarket across the UK
Busy with lots of customers day after day
- 4) For plenty of different years on Radio and TV
There has been the advert 'More Reasons To Shop At Morrisons' for all to see Trying to get lots more people shopping there
So of any closures there is no scare
- 5) Morrisons have now covered a big distance
Providing food and goods come of assistance
And if it continues to bring to all it's customers a smile
It will be running for a very long while
