

150 Years Of The Salvation Army

- 1) Now in 2015 for 150 years The Salvation Army charity has been going
Support for lots of homeless lonely and poor people showing
To help many different people to stay alive
It was first started by the UK's William and Catherine Booth in the year 1865

- 2) Giving the public loads of food to eat
The Salvation Army has helped them to stay on their feet
For some rather than just leave them on their own
They've provided a new sheltered home

- 3) During the very sad World War I and II
This charity also helped out quite a few
Lots of men and women in The Salvation Army were quite brave
All playing a part with many a life to save

- 4) Keeping more and more people safe and sound
Now The Salvation Army is in a total of 126 countries to be found
Each day they to members of the public come of assistance
Whilst in this world covering oh quite a distance

- 5) The Salvation Army definitely help plenty of others out
And do that without a single doubt
They give all those most suffering poverty lots of support
Just like they all warm heartedly think that they ought

© Paul Wilkins 25/07/2015