

A True Or Phoney Statement

1. Many a phone call is made today
Without the slightest bit of delay
Whether people are with friends or on their own
They're always busy on their mobile phone
2. After over plenty a different matter
Members of the public are on their mobile having a chatter
What they often do next
Is send one or two people a text
3. Though it's not a very good idea
People speak on their mobiles just before changing their gear
Yes whilst travelling quite near and far
On their phone they chat and chat as they're driving their car
4. One other thing done with mobiles by quite a few
Is to take a picture of me and you
Some of which are forever getting dafter
Though are regularly looked at with lots and lots of laughter
5. Oh well most friends and relations get on well so much
They should often try and keep in touch
So even when not face to face together
You can give each other a call or text whenever
