

Getting Up Early In The Morning, Occasionally Yawning

- 1) It'll soon be time to get the curtains undrawn
It's now reaching dawn
Time to stop lying in bed
Get out and about instead

- 2) I'll now get up and dressed in my smart clothes
Before I'm tempted to have another doze
It'll soon be time to set off to work
At which if I was late attending I'd look a berk

- 3) I'll quickly now have some breakfast to digest
Egg, sausage, bacon and toast together is the best
Time to see if there's anything in the post
Nice letters from friends I like the most

- 4) I'd now better set off to work in my car
The road looks busy although the distance to travel isn't too far
That's getting up and together out the way
Time to see what happens at work and elsewhere through the day
