

Going To All The Town Pubs

1. Recently I've been to many a pub
For a nice drink and some grub
Most of them for a fair deal
Serve plenty a decent meal
I'm usually having a few drinks of coke
Whilst telling others plenty a good joke
2. After having dinner at a small table
To have a chat at the bar I am quite able
Where I have plenty a laugh
As chatting to the different bar staff
I'm usually having a few drinks of coke
Whilst telling others plenty a good joke
3. Although not extremely quite dear
Each pub sells many a pint of beer
Sometimes people have too much to drink
And for ages struggle to think
I'm usually having a few drinks of coke
Whilst telling others plenty a good joke
4. Occasionally disco music is being played by chance
To which lots of different people try to dance
With everyone saying hip hip hurray
To a quite popular and entertaining DJ
I'm usually having a few drinks of coke
Whilst telling others plenty a good joke
5. Without a little bit of debate
Most pubs are open quite late
Then following the concluding round
A number of drunkards are on the street to be found
I'm usually having a few drinks of coke
Whilst telling others plenty a good joke
