

Going To The Library

- 1) On each and every day
People go to libraries with no delay
To after having a careful look
Choose many an interesting book

- 2) The various books are then given a date
That they're to be returned by with no debate
Or with things not going on time
The guilty client may face a small fine

- 3) With the gathering of a few
Certain clubs meet at the libraries too
Where they have plenty a table hobby or game event
Doing just what they're meant

- 4) The libraries have been going for ages
Through lots of different life stages
And are expected to continue for quite a while Bringing to members of the public a big smile

© Paul Wilkins 20/01/2024