

Kirkham's To The Fylde Made A Change

1. With lots and lots of history to show
Kirkham was established a number of centuries ago
Over the years developing just like it ought
It was once the location of a Roman Fort
2. Kirkham having lots of gradual change to take place
Is central to Preston and Blackpool based
The Railway Station opened in 1840 with no doubt
And has since then helped plenty of people get about
3. Definitely with no intention to forget her
In 1887 in Kirkham a memorial was erected
To mark the Golden Jubilee of Queen Victoria
Kirkham was also for quite a while a market town
With prices not too often going down
4. Kirkham library has been enjoyed since 1939
When building and opening it went fine
Also to completely prove they're not a fool
Children have for ages been learning
At Kirkham Grammar and Carr Hill High School
5. There are a couple of churches and war memorials in Kirkham too
Which are regularly attended by quite a few
A Club Day is also had in June each year
With many a nice town event to cheer
