

Magic Lost But Found

- 1) There once was a Wizard
Who got caught in a blizzard
And he dropped his wand
Which fell into a pond

- 2) Getting it back from amongst the fish
Was now his top wish
So knowing losing it he'd regret
He threw in the water a net

- 3) Soon he managed to regain the wand
Getting it from a fish that was colour blond
And he said after losing it was tragic
Getting it back was magic

- 4) He then got out his spell book
At which to have a look
As a Wizard he then cast one
Which got the blizzard gone

- 5) Now the weather was calm
He felt no harm
But hoping it would be fine the rest of the day
He to the castle made his way
