Mr John R Jones

Dear Mr Jones

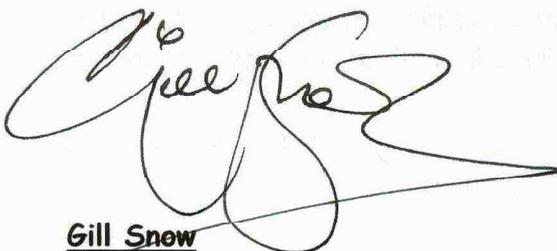

Thank you for sending through on 17 July the song material for Sir Cliff Richard's attention.

Sir Cliff appreciated your letting him hear your song material and enjoyed listening, although he regrets that he does not feel that it is right for him. Furthermore, he has an album of duets being released towards the end of this year, and has recorded a Christmas song that is likely to be released as a single. He does not plan to be in the recording studio again for at least 18 months, so is not actively seeking new songs in the foreseeable future.

I regret that we are unable to assist with publishing; this is not an area in which we are actively involved.

We do hope you are able to place the material elsewhere - both for publishing and recording - and thank you for your interest.

Yours sincerely

Gill Snow
