

Reply Sir David Attenborough

Dear Paul

David Attenborough thanks you very much for your recent birthday greeting. He has already been completely overwhelmed by the many kind messages he has been sent as his centenary approaches.

He hopes you will forgive this simple note of thanks but there have been far too many messages for him to reply to them all personally.