

Barry Davies And His BBC Career

- 1) Barry Davies before with good sports commentary taking us to heaven
Was first born in London in 1937
And went to Cranbrook School, Kent, yes
Where he had interest in sport or so I guess
- 2) With all his ambitious sports coverage going quite fine
Barry joined the BBC in 1969
Then for 35 years was taking part in Match Of The Day
Giving lots of great football commentary without any delay
- 3) Barry went on to cover 10 World Cups and 17 Olympic games in his witty way
Giving lots of active comments day after day
He helped to cover Wimbledon tennis competition many years too
Which was always enjoyed by oh quite a few
- 4) Barry married Penny in the year 1968
Before having 2 children following a little debate
Who were to be son Mark and daughter Giselle
And some grandchildren where to arrive as-well
- 5) Being such a great television presenter like never seen before
Barry was given an MBE in December 2004
Now in 2018 following him presenting TV sports for ages
His happy career retirement is going to make all the front pages

© Paul Wilkins 17/09/2018