

Desmond Lynam

- 1) Desmond Lynam, now well known to me and you
Was born in Ireland in 1942
Before as a child with his parents he moved to the UK
Where he's been very, very pleased to stay
- 2) After getting his 'A' levels and shortly working in a bank
He took to the radio quite frank
Working there until about 1977
When he saw BBC as closer heaven
- 3) After being a presenter on Nationwide for a short while
He starred in Grandstand and Sports-night with a smile
Followed by also Match of the Day
For him to also enjoy hip hip hurray
- 4) He married Susan Skinner in 1965
Who's probably still in his mind alive
Though now for 30 years of love reality
Des has had a nice partner called Rosemary
- 5) In 1999 Des declared the BBC
Moving to the sport on ITV
Before retiring in the year 2004 did he
Just a short while before being awarded an OBE
