

FIFA U-20 World Cup In Korea Republic 2017

- 1) In the FIFA U-20 World Cup in Korea Republic in 2017
Lots of tremendous amateur football skills were to be seen
It took place from the 20th May to the 11th June
Having many different supporters over the moon
- 2) In the quarter finals before much time had gone
England U-20 side beat Mexico 0-1
Then came a great semi-final for you and me
When they also beat Italy 1-3
- 3) England U-20 had then made the final against Venezuela yes
Which was to be quite a challenge or so I guess
But with a 0-1 England Competition good win with no debate
Everyone English was to soon deeply celebrate
- 4) Playing as one of the best of them all
English U-20 player Dominic Solanke was awarded the Competition 'Golden Ball'
Whilst England U-20 Goal-keeper Freddie Woodman, out of lots of others to be deeply applaud
Was given the great Football Competition 'Golden Glove' award
- 5) This was the 1st global football tournament final and win for England since 1966
When the seniors Bobby Charlton and Geoff Hurst had got fully up to their tricks
In this, the 21st Edition of U-20 World Cup event since it first started in 1977
The stunning result had taken the English U-20s team and supporters to Heaven
