

Happy Birthday Sir Terry Wogan

- 1) Sir Terry Wogan to be drank to with beer
Became the special age of 75 last year
This year still up to his DJing tricks
I believe he's about to turn 76

- 2) Sir Terry started his career very busy on the BBC Radio
Before on BBC TV with 'Blankety Blank' he also had a go
He followed this with the 'Wogan' Chat show
And at interviewing very many well know celebrities he had a go

- 3) In-between the year 1971 and 2008
Sir Terry covered 'The Eurovision Song Contest' well without debate
Doing this for so extremely long
I bet he got familiar with plenty a good song

- 4) In 1965 Sir Terry took Helen Joyce as his wife
And began a very big family life
They now have 5 grandchildren yes
And still live in Buckinghamshire or so I guess

- 5) After on BBC Radio and TV doing all that he could
In 2005 with deep appreciation Sir Terry even got given 'Knighthood'
And bringing to lots of children a smile
I think he'll continue DJing and presenting 'Children In Need'
For oh quite a while
