

John Travolta Is 70

- 1) John Travolta was born, in Englewood, New Jersey, United States on the 18th February 1954
Followed by him being one of the best actors ever seen before
It's his special 70th birthday today
At which we all say 'hip hip hurray'

- 2) John became a good actor on TV
Then a leading man in films to be seen by you and me
Having lead roles in Carrie (1976), Grease - with Olivia Newton-John - (1978) and Saturday Night Fever (1977)
Which, with an Academy Award for Best Actor, took him to heaven

- 3) John married Kelly Preston 1991 to 2020 yes
When she sadly passed away or so I guess
But, as a family, they had 3 children too
Who were to get on with quite a few

- 4) In plenty a good film John was to be the star cast
With a great career that forever did last
He was a singer-songwriter as-well
That his 9 album collection fully had to tell

- 5) John has now, from his successful star career, retired
Though he achieved all that he desired
And on this 70th birthday, with all his fans, can have deep celebration
With not a slight bit of hesitation
