

Kate Middleton Is 40

- 1) Kate Middleton, Duchess of Cambridge, has her 40th birthday today
At which we all say 'hip hip hurray'
Now for a while to be seen by me and you
She was born, in Reading, on the 9th January 1982

- 2) Kate first went to St Andrew's School, and Marlborough College yes
Before at University of St Andrew, in 2001, she first met William or so I guess
Who then got married, at Westminster Abbey, in 2011
Taking each of their lives to Heaven

- 3) Kate and William were soon to have a family too
3 children to be seen on TV by quite a few
Prince George, Princess Charlotte and Prince Louis were to them born
Each in the evening or at about dawn

- 4) Kate with proudness to be seen
Has carried out royal duties and engagements in support of the Queen
Also without much hesitation
Held patronage within over 20 a charitable and military organisation

- 5) With Prince William now second in line of succession to the British throne quite keen
Kate has prospects of in the future becoming a Queen
We hope for her all goes well
In what the years ahead have to tell
