

Ken Bruce

- 1) Ken Bruce was born on the 2nd February 1951
Before much time had gone
And bringing a smile to his parent's face
In Glasgow this took place
- 2) Ken then grew up to be a Scottish broadcaster
With him on BBC Radio 2, as a DJ, to become a master
Regularly playing song after song
For very very long
- 3) Ken appeared on the Radio 1986 to 1990 yes
Then from 1992 to 2023 or so I guess
Before after fulfilling everyone's music requirement
In early 2023 he announced his retirement
- 4) Ken, after Fiona Fraser 1976 to 1988, married Anne Bruce 1990 to 1995
Then had Kenrith Coldham the year 2000 to present keeping him well alive
With this leading to 6 children too
Which formed a family of quite a few
- 5) We now all give Ken a big thank-you
Career-wise playing lots of music for me and you
And hope for him all goes well
In what his pension years have to tell
