

Prince Harry Is 30

- 1) I believe it's Prince Harry's 30th birthday today
So together on the 15th September 2014 let's say hip hip hurray
He's now been around for quite a while
Bringing to plenty of charities a very big smile

- 2) Prince Harry born of Prince Charles and Princess Diana yes
Did well at Eton College or so I guess
He study and qualification-wise did quite well
At an early age enjoying riding and hunting as-well

- 3) Prince Harry at a rather young age
With the death of his mother went through a sad stage
But he was eventually to get over this upset
And progress well in his own life under no fret

- 4) Prince Harry was to go bravely in battle to Afganistan
Where through all his clever training his military tasks he began
Boldly giving his country lots of devotion
He was to pick up lots of medals and deeply good promotion

- 5) To Prince Harry we once more wish a happy birthday time
Hoping for him in his future all goes fine
He's really so far in the Royal Family come of assistance
And in this world covered oh quite a distance
