

Princess Anne Is 60

- 1) It's Princess Anne's 60th birthday today
At which we all say 'hip hip hurray'
She's always been very clever
With a successful life being her endeavour
In the Royal Family she's been around for a while
Bringing to many people in this country a big smile

- 2) Princess Anne at riding the horse was always doing well
As much time has had to tell
She won the European 3 day event in 1971
For which she got 'Sports Personality of the Year' before much time was gone
In the Royal Family she's been around for a while
Bringing to many people in this country a big smile

- 3) Princess Anne through taking part in riding many a horse as she ought Once appeared on TV's 'Question of Sport'
Both in sport and the Royal Navy she's done very good
Always doing the best she could
In the Royal Family she's been around for a while
Bringing to many people in this country a big smile

- 4) Princess Anne has in bringing Zara and Peter up played a part
Showing to both her children a warm heart
And we hope for them all everything goes well
Now and in what the future has to tell
In the Royal Family she's been around for a while
Bringing to many people in this country a big smile
