Including some great grandchildren or so I guess
Lots of them never living on their own
With a great line-up for the throne

Takes part in many a London parade
In June Trooping the Colour on her birthday
At which lots of people will say 'hip hip hurray'

- 4) This year there'll be plenty a Platinum Jubilee event
With all the public showing to the Queen what her reign has mean't
She's in the Commonwealth also played a part
Worldwide fully shared her heart

- 5) For the Queen there'll be lots of celebration
With not a bit of hesitation
All of us of the National Anthem having a constant sing
Remembering her longest ever monarch as a special thing
