

Sir Bill Beaumont

- 1) Bill Beaumont was born in Chorley in March 1952
Before growing up to be a splendid rugby player to be watched by me and you
With everything going quite fine
He joined Fylde Rugby Club in 1969
- 2) At this club he was cheered on by quite a few
Until an injury forced him out in 1982
By which time he had Hilary as his wife
And 2 children called Josh and Daniel to brighten up his life
- 3) Bringing to this country a smile
Bill played for and captained England Rugby Union team for a while
For all the supporters to drink to with wine
They even beat the All Blacks in 1979
- 4) After his rugby retirement Bill for a while appeared on TV's 'Question Of Sport'
Giving David Coleman all the answers that he ought
He's also currently a member of the International Rugby Board yes
And Chairman of the Rugby Football Union or so I guess
- 5) Once more to be proud of by me and you
On the 11th May 2016 Bill was elected Chairman of World Rugby too
And as a big reward for doing for rugby all that he could
In December 2018 he even got awarded 'Knighthood'
