

Sir Chris Hoy CBE Is 50

- 1) Sir Chris Hoy was born in Edinburgh, Scotland on the 23rd March 1976
Before he grew up with all his different cycling tricks
And today bringing to his followers a 50th birthday smile
He was to become Olympic Champion for quite a while

- 2) Hoy won a total of seven Olympic Medals through cycling yes
Six 'Gold' and one 'Silver' or so I guess
With everything for him sport-wise going fine
He was to become the most successful Olympic cyclist of all time

- 3) In 2010 Hoy took Sarra as his wife
Who with two children was to deeply support his life
And he was given another very big cheer
When picking-up 'The BBC Sports Personality of The Year'

- 4) During the London 2012 Olympics Hoy was to do the best
Winning more Medals than all the rest
Then having the biggest Olympic achievement anyone could
He later that year was given 'Knighthood'

- 5) In September 2023 Hoy was diagnosed with prostate cancer as bad news
Then in 2025 a Tour de 4 cancer charity event he nicely did choose
Followed by a story of his life being shown on TV
To be watched with both proudness and sympathy
