

Sir Ian Botham Is 60

- 1) Sir Ian Botham is becoming 60 today
So for his special birthday let's all say 'hip hip hurray'
Making all the different front pages
He showed flamboyant batting and successful bowling
For England for ages
- 2) Ian made his debut for England in 1977
Before with David Gower, Graham Gooch, and Mike Gatting
Taking England's test winning to Heaven
Because in what the future had to tell
He played very extremely well
- 3) To be given many a big cheer
Ian in 1981 was given 'BBC Sports Personality of the Year'
Bringing all the England Cricket team supporters a smile
He was even Captain for a short while
- 4) Just before getting up to all his sport tricks
Ian married Kathryn Waller in 1976
Who sooner than it did seem
Where to have family of their dream
- 5) Ian was to carry lots of different charity fund raising out
For which in 2007 he deserved 'Knighthood' without a doubt
And now as a Cricket Commentator he's continuing on TV
To be seen and remembered quite regularly by you and me
