

Sir Steve Redgrave

- 1) Steve Redgrave over the years has been a great success
Won many a medal as published in the press
He's done very well with his rowing
Throughout his years of growing
- 2) In 1984 in Los Angeles Steve Redgrave rowed to success with his oar
Which he'd then never done before
But in Seoul in 1988 he won once again
In the race had been one of the world's best rowing men
- 3) In Barcelona in 1992 Redgrave won another gold
For which he and Matthew Pinsent had rowed
They were together doing very well
As the future was to tell
- 4) In Atlanta in 1996 Redgrave with Pinsent came out rowing with a good pace
And went on to, for a gold medal, win another boat race
They were at Olympics proving the best
Better than all the rest
- 5) In Sydney in 2000 came Redgrave's fame finding day
When with three of his colleagues he put on an excellent Olympic display
With their rowing the British won another race
Which had Redgrave with a record to face
- 6) He'd now won a record of five gold medals over his Olympic years
He truly deserved all the watching British cheers
