

The Great British Bake Off

- 1) When it comes to 'The Great British Bake Off'
This BBC TV programme has had a good popular take off
In this whilst not making too many a mistake
Lots of different people in competition have had a quick bake
- 2) During this programme without any delay
Plenty a beautiful cake has been baked each day
Then the judges have had a hard mission
Of on the winning entry making a good decision
- 3) The judges Mary Berry, Sue Perkins, Mel Giedroyc and Paul Hollywood
Have with the different entrants been as fair as they could Doing things just as generously as they ought They've been giving each product a very deep thought
- 4) Each judge at the same time as not having too much for their waist
Has carefully given each baked item a nice taste
Then with their different enjoyment hard to hide
On the winning item they've needed to decide
- 5) Conclusively at the same instant as being deeply applaud
The overall winner is given a really lovely award
And having been given 10 out of 10
Is deeply encouraged to bake time and time again
