

The INVICTUS GAMES in ORLANDO 2016

- 1) To bring a smile to plenty an ex-army victim's face
The Invictus Games has just taken place
In the Walt Disney World 10 different sports were had
To try and make many injured people a lot more glad

- 2) Prince Harry enjoyed it without a doubt
To help the competitors he gave an encouraging shout
485 people took part from May 8th to 12th
With 410 medals to be won and put upon a house shelf

- 3) After an all round Opening Ceremony 14 nations took part yes
All wanting to do quite well or so I guess
There was volleyball, swimming, power-lifting, and road cycling
To be watched by you and me
Along with wheelchair tennis and basketball on the TV Channel of BBC

- 4) Looking back on what their service in the armed forces had un-nicely caused
The people competing exceptionally well deserved lots of applause
Each of the different sport events was coming of assistance
Helping everyone feel better by covering oh quite a distance

- 5) Having the Invictus Games helped lots of people feel much happier for sure
The enjoyable Closing Ceremony did take place with music once more
Just about all the competitors had done really well
Some may even appear in the Paralympics in what the future has to tell
