

The Life Of Bonnie Tyler

- 1) Bonnie Tyler was born, in Skewen, South Wales, on the 8th June 1951
And was to do well career-wise before much time had gone
She first came to prominence in the year 1976
With the song 'Lost in France' fully doing the tricks
- 2) Bonnie then had a transatlantic top 5 hit 'It's a Heartache' in 1978
Becoming a star singer without any debate
Then was the first Welsh singer to have a transatlantic number 1 in 1983
With Jim Steinman's 'Total Eclipse of the Heart' to be enjoyed by you and me
- 3) Bonnie married Robert Sullivan in July 1973
Who were to be true lovers quite certainly
Together they got on extremely very well
With a long relationship of which to tell
- 4) Bonnie had album 'Faster than the Speed of Night' reaching UK Album chart number 1
Proving quite popular in how it got on
She also remained active in the music industry worldwide
With a performance at Michael Douglas and Catherine Zeta-Jones wedding to not hide
- 5) Bonnie then recently, on the 8th July 2026, sadly in Faro, Portugal, of an illness did die
Though in life she'd made a good achievement no lie
And will be remembered for absolute ages
With all her great song performing stages
