

The Life Of Dame Maggie Smith CH DBE

- 1) Maggie Smith was born in Ilford on the 28th December 1934
To become a great actress never seen before
Starting with the National Theatre and Royal Shakespeare Company
She was later to very often be seen in a film on TV
- 2) Smith is to be deeply applaud
Through her picking up many a star actress Award
Mostly known as 'Professor Minerva McGonagall' in Harry Potter films 2001 to 2011
And in Downton Abbey as 'Violet Crawley' in 2010 to 2015 taking the audience to heaven
- 3) Smith married Robert Stephens from 1967 to 1975
Then Alan Beverley Cross from 1975 until 1998 when he was sadly no longer alive
With whom she both got on very well
And through them had 2 children as-well
- 4) Smith was made a Dame (DBE) in the 1990 New Year Honours to be seen
Then a member of the 'Order of the Companies of Honour' (CH) for services to drama
In 2014 by the Queen
Because she did extremely good
In her actress career doing everything she should
- 5) Smith achieved much more than known of before
But she sadly died, aged 89, in a London Hospital on the 27th September 2024
Although she's to be remembered for absolutely ever
With her all-round career characters slipping people's mind at all never