

The Life Of David Vine

- 1) David Vine was born in Newton Abbot, Devon, on the 3rd January 1935
Before, when he grew up, he was to cover lots of sports quite live
Joining the BBC in the year 1966
He was to get up-to many commentator's tricks
- 2) David first covered Rugby Special, Match Of The Day, and A Question Of Sport
Doing his TV production just like he ought
Then Grandstand, Superstars, Starshot and Ski Sunday
Giving up-to date action with no delay
- 3) David was with Shirley 1958 to 1970 yes
Then married to Mandy 1972 to 2009 or so I guess
With him being a father of 4 children as-well
In what his family had to tell
- 4) David also presented Wimbledon for a while Bringing to all the spectators a big smile
And snooker for absolutely ages
Taking it through all the different stages
- 5) Doing all that he was meant ta
David proved an all round good Television sports presenter
Until near Henley-On-Thames, Oxfordshire, on the 11th January 2009 he passed away
Aged 74 on this unfortunate sad day

© Paul Wilkins 11/03/2023