

The Life Of Frank Williams

- 1) Frank Williams was born on the 2nd July 1931
Before much time had gone
He then went to school and Ardingly College yes
Followed by becoming a good Comedian actor or so I guess
- 2) Taking all the different soldiers to heaven
Frank starred as Reverend Timothy Farthing in Dad's Army 1969 to 1977
Saying for them all regularly a prayer
Whilst they had a World War II of which to beware
- 3) Frank then played a similar role
In 'You Rang, M'Lord', 'Hi-de-Hi', 'What's Up Nurse', 'The Worker' & 'Vanity Fair' on the whole
Then once more in the position of Reverend Timothy Farthing in 2016
When in an adaption of Dad's Army he was to be seen
- 4) Frank was vice president, then in 2013 President, of the Dad's Army Appreciation Society
Attending lots of society events to be seen by you and me
Also he was Author of play following play
To be watched on stage day after day
- 5) Then, after many a film, sadly to be heard by quite a few
Frank, aged 90, passed away on the 26th June 2022
Now perhaps to heaven he'll find his way
For some of us to see again at a later day
