

The Life Of Martin Luther King

- 1) Martin Luther King was born in Atlanta, Georgia, United States on the 15th January 1929
And his career was to go quite fine
Becoming an American Baptist Minister yes
Who was to lots of different people bless
- 2) Martin was married to Coretta Scott 1953 to 1968
Having 4 nice children following a little debate
Then he became Prominent Leader in civil rights movement
Leading protest marches after a big improvement
- 3) Martin led action against Jim Crow Laws and other forces of discrimination
Doing so with not a bit of hesitation
Combating racial inequality through non-violent resistance too
Which had him proud of an October 1964 'Nobel Peace Prize' for helping out quite a few
- 4) Then Martin was Assassinated on the 4th April 1968
With lots of loss felt with no debate
And national mourning soon took place
With plenty a very sad looking face
- 5) Whilst in the United States staying around
The rights of many others Martin had really successfully found
Awarded 'Presidential Medal Of Freedom' in 1977
Followed in 2003 by a 'Congressional Gold Medal' for him in Heaven
