

The Life Of Scott Hastings

- 1) Scott Hastings was born on the 4th December 1964
To become a Legend Rugby union player for lots to adore
He played for Watsonians for many a year
Winning the Scottish Premiership in 1997-98 with a good cheer
- 2) Hastings played in the Scottish international team for quite a while Bringing to all his supporters a very big smile
On two tours a member of the British & Irish Lions too
Showing to the public what on the pitch he could do
- 3) Hastings shortly had Jenny as his wife
Leading to a nice daughter in his life
He was younger brother of Gavin Hastings yes
Who also played lots of club and country Rugby union or so I guess
- 4) Hastings was the most capped Scottish international rugby player on all the front pages
And he also helped Edinburgh Rugby, as captain, do great for ages
With him playing exceedingly very well
In what his Rugby career deeply had to tell
- 5) One thing for lots of different people to see
Was Hastings becoming a good rugby commentator on TV
Then earlier this year of 2026 aged 61 he of cancer sadly passed away
With an up-setting event on the 17th May