

The Life Of Sir Bobby Robson

- 1) Sir Bobby Robson, born in Glasgow on 18th February 1933
Was a very tremendous football player and manager to be Fulham and West Brom he played for first of all Under his first managers of really good football
- 2) He was made manager of Fulham and Ipswich Town for ages
Getting many trophy holding pictures on all the front pages
Then following his own 20 England caps including the World Cup in 1958
He, starting in the 1980's, through being made England manager, had a lot to debate
- 3) Sir Bobby had England lose at the hands of Argentina in a quarter final in 1986
When one of the opposition got up to his own hand tricks
Then had them lose by penalties to West Germany in a semi-final in 1990, yes
Though they did very well to get so far I guess
- 4) Sir Bobby then managed some foreign teams including P.S.V. Eindhoven and Barcelona for a while
Before coming back to England, to manage Newcastle United, with a smile
He through his intelligence was to pick up many a Merit award
Before his June 2002 'Knighthood' was had as an even bigger reward
- 5) Sir Bobby now with a slight worry, again of cancer, to his life
Still to ease him off, has his 3 children, and Elsie as his long had wife
As shown with his Sports Personality 2007 Life Time Achievement Award
He has many an ingenious achievement in life for which to be applaud
