

The Life Of Sir Roger Moore

- 1) Roger Moore was born on 14th October 1927 in Stockwell, London in the UK
And was to grow up to be a big TV Star at a later day
With the start of his acting career going quite fine
He played 'Simon Templar' in TV series 'The Saint' 1962 to 1969
- 2) Roger played 007 Agent James Bond 1973 to 1985
Keeping the film stories of this active character alive
This started with the film 'Live and Let Die'
Which proved quite popular without a lie
- 3) Roger then made 'The Man with the Golden Gun', 'The Spy Who Loved Me'
And lots of other 007 films a thrill
Until in 1985 he made his last James Bond appearance in 'A View to a Kill'
Whilst travelling dangerously near and far
In each of these films he was a real star
- 4) Roger had quite an in and out family life
In the end experiencing 4 ladies each as his wife
He had Deborah, Geoffrey Robert and Christian as his 3 proper children yes
And one called Christine as his step daughter or so I guess
- 5) Roger proudly got a CBE award in 1999
Then 'Knighthood' in 2003 mainly for his career and charity events going quite fine
He unfortunately in Switzerland died of cancer on the 23rd May 2017
And following reaching the age of 89 will sadly no longer be seen

© Paul Wilkins 23/05/2017