

The Life Of Sir Terry Wogan

- 1) Sir Terry Wogan started his career very busy on the BBC Radio
Before on BBC TV with 'Blankety Blank' he also had a go
He followed this with the 'Wogan' Chat show
And at interviewing very many well known celebrities he had a go
- 2) In-between the year 1971 and 2008
Sir Terry covered 'The Eurovision Song Contest' well without debate
Doing this for so extremely long
I bet he got familiar with plenty a good song
- 3) In 1965 Sir Terry took Helen Joyce as his wife
And began a very big family life
They then had 5 grandchildren yes
And lived in Buckinghamshire with them or so I guess
- 4) After on BBC Radio and TV doing all that he could
In 2005 with deep appreciation Sir Terry even got given 'Knighthood'
And bringing to lots of children a smile
He continued DJing and presenting 'Children In Need' for oh quite a while
- 5) Now quite sadly without a lie
Has come the day on which via cancer suffering he needed to die
Though with this news making all the front pages
He'll no doubt be remembered for ages and ages
