

The Life Of Steve Wright MBE

- 1) Steve Wright was born in Greenwich, London on the 26th August 1954
And in the 1970s, after attending Eastwood High School, became a DJ never heard of before
He was then, for a while, a disc jockey, radio personality and occasional TV presenter
Doing all that he was completely meant ta
- 2) Steve presented 'Steve Wright in the Afternoon' for 12 years on BBC Radio 1 yes
Then 23 years on BBC Radio 2 or so I guess
Playing many a very popular song
With which lots of the public enjoyed singing along
- 3) Steve married Cyndi Robinson 1985 to 1999
With a relationship going for some time
Having 2 children called Tom and Lucy too
Who were to get known by quite a few
- 4) Steve appeared on plenty a TV show
At leading 'Top of the Pops' often having a go
Where he had a real lot to learn
Including how to get on with Tony Blackburn
- 5) To be given lots and lots of applause
Steve also picked up some DJ Awards
Then sadly in Marylebone, London on the 12th February 2024 he did die
Though he'll be remembered forever no lie

© Paul Wilkins 12/02/2024