

The Life Of Striker Jimmy Greaves

- 1) Jimmy Greaves was born on the 20th February 1940 in Manor Park, London
Before he grew up and with a soccer career had lots of fun
He started at Chelsea in 1957 yes
Then he gave A.C. Milan a try, in April 1961, or so I guess
- 2) Jimmy was then a star striker for Tottenham Hotspur for a while Bringing to his Manager and colleagues a big smile
And he married Irene Barden in 1958
Who with 3 children were to live a long happy life together with no debate
- 3) Jimmy helped Spurs win both the FA Cup and Charity Shield in 1962 and 1967
Taking all the club's fans to heaven
They also became European Cup Winners Cup Champions in 1963
With many a great goal of his to see
- 4) Jimmy for Spurs and England scored plenty a hat-trick and record breaking goal
For England 1956 to 1967 '44' on the whole
In 1966 he helped England win the World Cup
Though him not playing in the final was a bit of a hiccup
- 5) Jimmy sadly turned to alcohol for a few years
Then in 1985 to 1992 with 'Saint and Greavsie' he brought to TV some more football cheers
And in 2020 with the Queen's New Year Honours he picked up an MBE
Before on the 19th September 2021 he sadly passed away whilst based in Danbury
