

The Life Of Terry Griffiths OBE

- 1) Terry Griffiths was born, in Llanelli, Wales on the 16th of October 1947
To become a Professional snooker player from 1978 to 1997
His 2nd qualified for tournament being the 1979 World Snooker Championship yes
Where he defeated Dennis Taylor in the final, or so I guess
- 2) Terry won the Masters in 1980, and was runner-up 3 times too
Then he won the UK Championship in 1982
He also one year took Annette as his wife
Who was to even more brighten up his life
- 3) Terry competing with oh quite a few
Reached at least the quarterfinals of the World Championship from 1984 to 1992
Retiring from playing in 1996, when he instead became a snooker coach
Helping Stephen Hendry, Mark Williams and Ding Junhui make the right approach
- 4) Achieving such a lot to be seen by quite a few
One year Terry even got an OBE Award too
He'd had a big successful sports career
Often to by the audience be given a big cheer
- 5) Terry later suffered dementia like lots of others had unfortunately done before
And then sadly he died, at the age 77, on the 1st December 2024
Though he experienced such a good snooker playing and coaching Professional career
He will be remembered forever, year after year
