

Torvill And Dean

- 1) Before going through a very special stage
Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean met in Nottingham at a young age
In 1975 ice dancing coach Janet Sawbridge got them together
Which was to go on forever
- 2) Having practiced ice dancing for a while
Firstly, succeeding in several national and international competitions
Brought Torvill and Dean their first smile
Then in 1979 Betty Callaway became their next coach
And had them quite regularly making the right ice dancing approach
- 3) Jayne after being an insurance clerk for a few years
Eventually quit to ice dancing with Christopher bring lots and lots of cheers
Whilst Christopher first spent six years working in the police force as his career
Before quitting and with Jayne ice dancing quite often appear
- 4) Torvill and Dean got the Olympic gold medal in 1984
With a Bolero ice dance record breaking score
Before the bronze medal in 1994
Through them performing splendidly once more
- 5) Going through lots of different stages
Torvill and Dean as British, European, Olympic and World Champions
Made all the front pages
And are still taking part in TV Show 'Dancing On Ice' today
Which plenty of people enjoy watching with no delay
